Parish News

September 2019

I have included a small picture below to give you an idea of its scale but to use a modern parlance I walked into a museum where it was on display and I was absolutely gobsmacked. I challenged the woman at the desk with a couple of, what I thought, were obscure countries but was soon put in my place. If you get the chance then please go and see this beautiful Quilt, which is now on display in Ottawa Canada. The lady in the picture gives some idea of scale.

The front cover, although from Central African Republic, reminds me very much of a scene from Uganda where the girls from Hellen's shelter pound and sift through the grain to clean it of stones and other foreign bodies. It is much cheaper to buy if not already cleaned. I thought it quite appropriate for Harvest time.

I hope to visit the shelter early next year and possibly help them with purchasing another vehicle.

Wishing everyone a fruitful harvest
Deacon Helen

PCC Meeting

The date for the next PCC meeting will on Monday, 14th October at 2.30pm at The Cottage, Cold Kirby. NOTE NEW TIME

Scawton

Scawton's Harvest Songs of Praise will be on Friday, 13th September in St Mary's church at 7.00pm, followed by Supper in the Reading Room. All welcome.

Harvest Gifts

At our last PCC meeting it was suggested that we provide less fresh produce to display and more items suitable for the Food Bank in Middlesbrough. The churches could be decorated with leaves, berries etc. along with tinned and dry goods. For a number of years we have supported the Food Bank in Middlesbrough during Lent and Advent and they have been most grateful. It seems appropriate to also do so at Harvest. Please help us with this enterprise. Any of the following would be very welcome gifts. Tinned goods: meat, fish, vegetables, fruit, rice pudding, soup. Dry goods: breakfast cereal, pasta, rice, packet soup, sugar, tea/coffee, jars of jam, pasta sauce, cartons of fruit juice, U.H.T. milk.

Tea at the Rectory

On the second Tuesday of each Month - starting at 2.00pm we will be holding a social gathering with Tea, cakes and a chat at the Rectory in Old Byland to which all are welcome.

This will be followed by a short reflective prayer service which we do hope all will feel happy to stay for and take part in or simply sit and listen.

The next 'Tea' will be on 10th September.
